

This measure would squash local ISP's by allowing large phone corporations to price them out of the market. Local ISP's provide superior service to their customers and the community at large. Please don't allow big business interests to prevail because in the end everyone loses.